VII. Damages and Relief

A. Plaintiffs' Statement

Plaintiffs seek the following relief:

- Common Law Fraud: Plaintiffs seek their actual, out-of-pocket damages resulting from the defendants' fraud, as well as punitive damages in an amount to be determined by the jury. Precise out-of-pocket damages will be proven at trial. Below are estimates as to each Plaintiff's approximate out-of-pocket damages:
  - Anwar Alkhatib: Mr. Alkhatib asserts $10,200 in out-of-pocket damages, consisting of the amount he was coerced and fraudulently induced to pay above what had been represented to him at the time he made a $10,000 down payment. His damages further consist of $2,700 for an insurance policy (which he never received coverage from) that he was fraudulently induced to purchase.
  - Shahadat Tuhin: Mr. Tuhin asserts $10,216.86 in out-of-pocket damages, consisting of his $2,630 cash deposit, $866.86 in monthly payments, $320 in towing costs, $3,750 in storage costs, and $2,650 in alternate transportation. He asserts an additional $21,677.10 in actual damages for the inflated sum of the contract, as well as damages for emotional distress in an amount to be determined by the jury.
  - Simon Gabrys: Mr. Gabrys asserts out-of-pocket damages of $12,350.76. This sum consists in part of the of $10,627.12 difference between the size of the loan (including interest payments) to which Mr. Gabrys agreed and the size of the loan (including interest payments) as recorded in the Retail Installment Contract assigned to M&T Bank. Mr. Gabrys further suffered an out-of-pocket loss of $1,673.64 (plus a $50 cancellation fee) based on what he could not recover on the service contract he was fraudulently induced to purchase.
  - Boris Freire and Miriam Osario: Mr. Freire and Ms. Osario assert out-of-pocket damages of $52,000, consisting of (i) the inflated amount they owed pursuant to the Retail Installment Agreement assigned to Santander Consumer USA, Inc. ("SCUSA") over what they agreed to and (ii) phony insurance and refinancing projects they were fraudulently induced to purchase.
  - Zheng Hui Dong: Ms. Dong asserts out-of-pocket damages of $38,000, consisting of the amount of money recorded in the forged Retail Installment Agreement assigned to SCUSA that was above what she agreed to pay at the dealership, when she paid $13,500 in cash and believed she had purchased a vehicle out right. Ms. Dong's claimed out-of-pocket damages also include fees incurred when SCUSA repossessed her vehicle.

- Chowdhury: Ms. Chowdhury asserts out-of-pocket damages of $10,991.15. This amount consists of the inflated sum in the contract that was assigned to M&T Bank above what Ms. Chowdhury agreed to at the dealership. It also credits (and subtracts) partial reimbursements Ms. Chowdhury's son, Shehad Kazi, obtained from the dealership totaling $5,038.01. It also consists of $1,273.25 she was unable to recoup from a service contract the dealership fraudulently induced her to obtain.
  - Tareque Ahmed: Mr. Ahmed asserts damages of $11,000, consisting of the amount he repaid SCUSA that was above and beyond what he agreed to pay when entering into the Retail Installment Agreement. This sum further includes post-repossession deficiencies demanded of Mr. Ahmed by the bank after his car was repossessed and $680 he paid Mr. Estrada to "fix" his problems.
  - Ysabel Banon: Ms. Banon asserts out-of-pocket damages of $34,480, consisting of the difference between the agreed-upon purchase price of the vehicle had she used cash $32,500, which she wanted to use to purchase the vehicle but was told she could not, and the amount that Ms. Banon would have to pay if she paid her loan in full.
  - Chea Park: Mr. Park asserts out-of-pocket damages of $21,277.30, consisting of payments he made to the bank before his car was repossessed above the amount he agreed to pay, post-repossession deficiencies claimed by the bank, and fees he had to pay to reclaim his car after it was repossessed the first time.
- Civil RICO: Plaintiffs seek treble their actual damages – consisting of their out-of-pocket damages and compensation for other harms suffered as a result of defendants' conduct – and attorneys' fees.
  - GBL § 349: Plaintiffs seek their actual damages plus $50. Plaintiffs also seek attorneys' fees.
  - GBL § 350: Plaintiffs seek their actual damages plus $500. Plaintiffs also seek attorneys' fees.
  - Negligent Hiring: Plaintiffs seek actual and punitive damages.
  - Truth in Lending Act: Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1640(a)(2)(iii), Plaintiffs seek the greater of $500 or double the amount of their finance charges. Plaintiffs contend that the ordinary $5,000 cap should not apply in this case because defendants engaged in a pattern and practice of Truth in Lending Act violations. See 15

U.S.C. § 1640(a)(2)(iii). Plaintiffs also seek costs and attorneys' fees.

Mr. Freire also paid $3,000 to refinance the contract, but the dealership never provided refinancing and instead pocketed the $3,000. His address is: 396 Kip Street<sup>[1]</sup><sub>SEP</sub> Teaneck, NJ 07666.

10. Zheng Hui Dong: Plaintiff Zheng Hui Dong will testify that after she paid $13,500 in cash for a vehicle and believed she had purchased it outright, she was later informed that SCUSA would attempt to collect an additional $38,000 from her based on a forged Retail Installment Contract. Ms. Dong will also testify that SCUSA repossessed her vehicle even after it was on notice of the defendants' fraudulent activity, thereby causing her additional loss. Her address is: 2636 University Ave<sup>[1]</sup><sub>SEP</sub> Bronx, NY 10468.

12. Ysabel Banon: Plaintiff Ysabel Banon will testify that she informed the Dealership that she wanted to purchase a vehicle with cash, but was informed that she was required to obtain financing. She will testify that she agreed to take out a loan for $5,000 but later learned from M&T that her loan was recorded as $36,739.74 at 5.98%, requiring her to repay $43,804.08 over the course of six years. #### B. Defendants' Witnesses

Defendants have not designated witnesses.

X. Deposition Designations

Plaintiffs' deposition designations are attached as Exhibit D (parts 1-20) to this Order. Defendants have not made deposition designations and accordingly Exhibit E is left blank.

Concurrent with the filing of this motion, Plaintiffs have filed a Motion for Spoliation Sanctions.

Respectfully submitted,
